TAKE A STAND AGAINST SUMMER PHOBIA!

Does the prospect of hot summer weather fill you with anxiety?
Do you find yourself thinking that this summer it will be different – no more 'fat days', no more hiding under big, baggy layers – only to find you're still overweight and stuck in old patterns of thinking and behaving?
At LighterLife we feel very strongly that everyone, regardless of their size, is entitled to enjoy the delights of summer.
No one wants to feel self conscious when they walk down the street in a summer dress or shorts. No one wants to feel ashamed sat by the pool on holiday, playing with their kids on the beach or simply just enjoying the outdoors.
Yet clients frequently tell us that until they joined LighterLife and regained their confidence they repeatedly battled the horrors of 'summer phobia'.
If you want to feel better in your own skin – we can help.

What is LighterLife?
LighterLife combines a Very Low Calorie Diet (VLCD) for effective weight loss and a unique behaviour change programme for long-term weight maintenance by helping people deal with their emotional attitude towards food.
You can pick from a range of plans replacing some or all of your conventional meals with LighterLife's nutritionally-balanced, high-quality Foodpacks. Our Foodpacks are formulated to include 100% of our RDA (Recommended Daily Allowance) and ensure you get all the nutrition you need.
With the pound-dropping taken care of you also have the opportunity to take part in a unique weekly group-session. Using the principles of Transactional Analysis (TA) and Cognitive Behavioural Therapy (CBT) you are given the tools to master your relationship with food for really inspiring, lasting results.
Described by our clients as their 'safe place' and 'the only place they can be honest about their behaviours', this invaluable group work explores weight issues such as recognising the difference between physical and psychological hunger, the use of food to manage emotions and difficulties in maintaining boundaries.

Beat your summer phobia by contacting Claire Bonner, who runs groups at the LighterLife Centre in Morton House, Kimbell Road Basingstoke on 07970 251715 to book a free, no obligation consultation. For more information, visit LighterLife.com.

Celebrity's Caribbean celebration

A TASTE of the Caribbean came to Basingstoke as Levi Roots brought his exciting flavours and personality to Festival Place.

The Reggae Reggae sauce creator was there as part of the Eat Street event, cooking up his trademark dishes including a coconut chicken curry and a 'hot 'n fruity' coleslaw.

He also performed Rastafarian music along with a steel band.

"The event was a huge success and it was lovely to see our visitors getting stuck in to some delicious food samples from our retailers," said Charlotte Ranger, marketing manager at Festival Place.

"Everyone enjoyed seeing Levi who really brought a lot of fun to this year's event with his cooking demonstrations and music."

Driver, 48, dies as tree hits car

By Matthew Brown

A 48-YEAR-OLD driver was killed when a tree fell on his car on the A287 near Odiham on Tuesday morning.

It happened during extremely windy conditions at 7.17am on the road between Rye Common and Ewshot.

The man, from nearby Crondall, died at the scene. His next of kin have been informed and are being supported by specialist officers.

Police are appealing for anyone with information to contact them.

Inspector Simon Hills said: "We are currently conducting our investigations in relation to this incident.

"I am appealing for anyone with information about this incident to get in touch. If you saw what happened please call us on 101."

The stretch of road was shut for much of Tuesday while investigations were carried out.

Ian Crowder from the AA said it was a rare occurrence but windy conditions do make driving hazardous."

"You need to be aware when driving past buildings and hedges as you could suddenly get a gust of wind coming from the gap," he said.

"It's best to moderate your speed, especially if you're driving on the motorway where a sudden gust could blow you around.

"When it's windy there can be all kinds of debris on the road, such as large branches."

Gales up to 60mph and heavy rain battered much of the UK on Tuesday.

In Plymouth three men died after their van crashed in strong winds and rain in what police described as "extreme" conditions.

Chance to be a player

TALENTED young musicians aged six to 18 are being sought to join the Basingstoke area youth orchestras and choirs from September.

String players, clarinetists, saxophonists, horn players, tuba players and singers in particular are needed.

The group has 12 ensembles, with a membership of 300 young people.

Area director John Fuller said: "There are wonderful opportunities to play with like-minded young musicians in some amazing concert venues.

"They can even take part in residential weekends and European tours."

There are opportunities to take part at levels from beginner to Grade 8 and beyond.

Follow our live blog as election results unfold

By Adam Flinn

PEOPLE are heading to the polls today to vote in the general election – and you can follow the local results on our live blog throughout the night.

Six candidates are standing to represent Basingstoke: Terry Bridgeman (Labour), Maria Miller (Conservative), Scott Neville (Libertarian), John Shaw (Liberal Democrat), Alan Stone (UKIP) and Richard Winter (Green).

Mrs Miller has been the town's MP since 2005. At the 2015 election she secured a majority of 11,063 over Labour.

Alan Stone was UKIP's challenger in 2015, while John Shaw represented the Liberal Democrats in 2010.

The other candidates have not stood in Basingstoke before.

Basingstoke and Deane is also covered by the North East Hampshire and North West Hampshire seats, representing the more rural areas of the borough.

North East Hampshire includes Hartley Wintney, Hook and Odiham, with six candidates fighting it out.

They are: Robert Blay (Independent), Graham Cockarill (Liberal Democrat), Mike Gascoigne (UKIP), Ranil Jayawardena (Conservative), Barry Jones (Labour) and Chas Spradbery (Green).

Ranil Jayawardena won one of the largest majorities in the country in 2015 with almost 30,000 more votes than Graham Cockarill. Barry Jones and Robert Blay have also fought the seat before.

North West Hampshire includes Whitchurch, Kingsclere, Highclere and Overton, extending all the way past Andover.

The five candidates are: Roger Clark (UKIP), Andy Fitchet (Labour), Dan Hill (Green), Kit Malthouse (Conservative) and Alex Payton (Liberal Democrat).

Kit Malthouse was elected MP in 2015 with a majority of 23,943. Dan Hill and Alex Payton also stood that year.

Polling stations across the borough are open from 7am to 10pm today.

We will be running a blog on our website, basingstokeobserver.co.uk, throughout the night to bring you all the local news and results.

Stories will also appear afterwards online and in next week's paper.

Mystery as biker seriously injured

ODIHAM: How a motorcyclist was left with serious injuries is shrouded in mystery.

The 50-year-old man was involved in an incident at the Golden Pot junction of the B3349 at around 7.10pm on May 31.

He was with a group of motorcyclists travelling south along the B3349 when a car passed them and turned left.

The motorcyclist lost control of his bike and came off.

There was no contact between the car – described as a blue BMW estate – and the motorbike.

The car carried on, possibly unaware of what happened to the motorcyclist.

Officers investigating the incident would like to speak the driver of the blue BMW and any witnesses.

Anyone with information should call PC Chris Pike on 101, quoting 44170206028, or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Cat loses leg

HARTLEY WINTNEY: A cat has had one of its legs amputated after being shot last month.

The pet returned home on May 9 with a significant injury to one of its back legs.

The cat is now recovering at home.

PC Vincent Lane said: "This would appear to have been an isolated incident, as neither we nor the local veterinary practice have received reports of similar incidents around this time.

"It is possible that the cat was mistaken for a rabbit and accidently shot at on agricultural land.

"Whether this was accidental or intentional, we are keen to find out more about what happened."

Standards at surgery 'worrying watchdog'

By Matthew Brown

THE health watchdog has admitted it is "worried" after a doctors' practice was judged to be putting patients at risk.

The Care Quality Commission has placed Beggarwood Surgery in special measures following an inspection earlier this year.

The practice, which caters for 7,500 patients, has had a catalogue of problems including doctors quitting and people waiting up to six weeks for an appointment.

The CQC has also rated it "inadequate".

Deputy chief inspector Ruth Rankine said: "Our inspectors had previously carried out an inspection at the surgery in May 2016 where the service was rated as 'requires improvement'.

"It is worrying that despite the concerns and improvements identified at that first inspection, our team found a decline in standards on their return."

Inspectors highlighted staff shortages at the Broadmere Road surgery, with doctors having to cover at another local practice, leading to some staff expressing concern it was now "clinically unsafe."

Patients were put "at risk" because care plans were "not always being entered" into their records.

There was also "a lack of clarity over the safe monitoring of repeat prescriptions", especially for those using high-risk drugs. The wait for routine appointments was found to be up to six weeks.

Some staff training was not current, information was not kept up to date and communication from the leadership to staff was "poor".

On Monday, Beggarwood Surgery will be left with just one permanent GP after four walked out. The remaining GP will be leaving in July. Cover will be provided by locums.

The practice said a review had been carried out of the "clinical structure" and it is "in the process" of recruiting two GPs and two nurse practitioners.

A spokesperson for the North Hampshire Clinical Commissioning Group said it had been working with the surgery and "additional support will be offered".

Beggarwood is operated by Cedar Medical, which also runs Rooksdown Practice in Park Prewett Road, which the CQC rated as requiring improvement in November 2016.

Richard Power, chief executive of Integral Medical Holdings, which Cedar is part of, said the surgery was "going through a challenging funding environment."

"The CQC is a healthy process and a plan is in place which will create a strong way forward for the practice," he said.

Mr Power also said that staffing plans are in place, with clinical cover booked in advance.

Having a whale of a time...

A HUGE whale has been spotted in Basingstoke – not a real one though!

It was a large kite, part of the 25th annual festival, where thousands of colourful creations brightened up the sky above Down Grange.

"It went brilliantly," said Alan Cosgrove, festival organiser from Loddon Valley Kite Flyer Club. "We had around 8,000 people come down over the weekend and it was a brilliant atmosphere, very friendly."

Numerous flying teams entertained the crowds with performances in the main arena.

Report concerns

HAMPSHIRE: Police and crime commissioner Michael Lane has urged the public to report any concerns about terrorism they have following Saturday's attack at London Bridge.

Seven people were killed in the latest terrorist incident, following on from the tragedies in Manchester and Westminster.

Mr Lane said: "It will always be right for members of the public to report concerns via 999, 101 or the anti-terrorist confidential hotline number 0800 789321.

"Any concern reported could be a contribution, or even the key, to allowing the security forces to interdict other potential terrorist or criminal acts."

Blaze rages at terraced home

Firefighters tackle the blaze at the terraced home in Worting Road last Friday. Picture: Glenn Tosek (Twitter)

A BLAZE has ripped through the first and second floors of a house in Basingstoke.

Fire crews were called to the end of terrace house on the Worting Road, at the junction with Rayleigh Road at around 9.50am on Friday last week.

They found the house well alight and the first floor and converted roof were badly damaged

Around 30 firefighters from six fire engines tackled the blaze for two-and-a-half hours.

The crews used eight sets of breathing apparatus.

No one was hurt. An investigation into the cause is under way.

Revised leisure deal promises £2m boost

By Matthew Brown

LEISURE facilities in Basingstoke are set to benefit from almost £2million of investment if an improved contract is signed.

A brand new 40-station gym would be built at Tadley Pool and there would be refurbishment programmes at the Aquadrome and an adventure course at the Golf Centre.

A report is to be put before the borough cabinet next week that recommends the offer from existing facilities operators Serco, Community Leisure Trust and Totally Tennis is extended up until 2022.

"I am pleased to see the report shows a systematic and robust approach has been taken regarding the management of the council's leisure facilities from 2018 onwards," said Cllr Simon Bound, cabinet member for communities and community safety.

"The members' advisory group was very supportive of the outcomes achieved through the negotiations, which achieve a better deal for the council while improving facilities that meet customer needs and expectations."

Serco and the leisure trust manage the Aquadrome, Tadley Pool and Golf Centre.

Should the cabinet approve the proposal, not only would it improve leisure facilities in the Basingstoke area, it is hoped it would save the council money.

Independent analysis has shown the Serco and trust offer could generate an average saving in management fees of £350k per year, totalling £1.75 million over the five-year period.

Under the proposals, Serco would fund £1.47 million of improvements, with the trust chipping in £170,300 and the council giving £430,000 for the new gym.

There is a request for the council to approve £1.529m to fund essential maintenance work that will keep the Aquadrome and Tadley Pool going until 2028.

Tribute to forces

BASINGSTOKE: Armed Forces Day will be marked with a flag-raising on June 19 at the Civic Offices.

The Mayor, Cllr Paul Frankum, will lead the ceremony, which starts at 10.30am.

Veterans who wish to have a badge presented by the mayor can contact Frank Connolly on 01256 414393 and leave their name address, contact number, service and regiment.

Homely festival

BASINGSTOKE: This year's Basingstoke Festival will have a home-grown feel on June 16.

'Born in the borough' is the theme as the festival celebrates talent, history and culture from the area.

Taking centre stage will be locally born, world-renowned author Jane Austen, whose 200th anniversary of her death in July will be commemorated with a series of events.

Visit basingstokefestival.co.uk for further information.

Austen is the star

BASINGSTOKE: A series of events will be held across the summer to celebrate the legacy and life of Jane Austen.

Among the highlights is the 'Sitting with Jane' trail – a series of 24 'bookbenches' scattered across the borough, each painted by a professional artist.

And on July 7, an outdoor screening of the 2005 film Pride and Prejudice will be shown in the War Memorial Park, starting at 7.30pm.

Woman, 71, hurt in clash with thieves

A GANG of would-be thieves assaulted an elderly farmer near Hartley Wintney.

The three people, believed to be male, were spotted by the 71-year-old woman running through her farm in Hazeley Heath between 4.30pm and 5.30pm on May 31.

One of the gang pushed her to the ground and demanded the keys to a nearby-parked quad bike. The group ran away after she refused.

The victim suffered a fractured hip and was taken to Frimley Park Hospital.

All three of the group had their faces covered and wore dark clothing.

"On the same afternoon, there were a number of sightings of three or four people riding a quad bike in the Bramshill Common area," said Detective Constable Jo Martindale.

"The two incidents could be connected.

"Did you see anything suspicious in the Bramshill Common area that afternoon?

"Did you see a quad bike being ridden?

"If so, we would like to hear from you.

"We would like to remind residents to remain vigilant and ensure that their property is secure."

Praise for 15-year-old library volunteer Ellie

Volunteer Ellie Veel

By Matthew Brown

A CHARITABLE 15-year-old who helps outs at South Ham library has been praised for her work as part of national volunteers' week.

Ellie Veel gives up her time after school to manage book shelves as well as preparing Saturday craft activities for children.

"Originally, I just volunteered at South Ham Library as a service to the community for my Duke of Edinburgh award but then I chose to stay on and now I am a weekly volunteer there," she said.

"I have worked for nearly five months. My tasks vary every week, depending on what needs to be done.

"I like being part of a team and it is good work experience."

Leader of Hampshire County Council, Cllr Roy Perry, paid tribute to the commitment and dedication shown by the local authority's volunteers like Ellie.

"Our volunteers are invaluable in helping us to make a difference in local communities," he said. "I would like to publicly thank all of our volunteers for their dedication and continued hard work in support of our services for Hampshire's 1.3million residents.

"There are many different reasons why residents enjoy the volunteering opportunities on offer with the county council, whether at our libraries, county archives or countryside sites.

"It's heartening to hear that our volunteers appreciate the benefits of volunteering as much as our communities do."

County's top fireman to stand down this December

HAMPSHIRE'S chief fire officer will be retiring at the end of the year.

Dave Curry, who has held the top job for three years, is stepping down this December.

Mr Curry said: "I am immensely proud and honoured to have been chief of what I believe is one of the best fire and rescue services in the world.

"I would like to thank everyone who has worked so hard during my time Hampshire Fire and Rescue."

Mr Curry has been an operational firefighter for more than 30 years and before becoming chief fire officer, was deputy for 11 years.

The process to find his replacement is set to get underway soon.

OVERTON: Families can jump into the saddle and join in with a leisurely bike ride on local roads.

The sustainable living forum is organising the two-hour ride for all abilities on Sunday.

Cyclists will need to meet at the Community Centre in High Street at 10am and refreshments will be available on return.

Young children in seats, tag-along or trailers are welcome to join in.

Summer concerts

BASINGSTOKE: Hannington silver band are kicking off the Eastrop Park summer concerts this Sunday.

They will be performing at the bandstand by the boating lake between 3pm and 5pm.

Bring your picnics, rugs and deckchairs to enjoy a relaxed afternoon of music.

With the exception of July 2 and 9, concerts will be held up until July 30.

Tim Smith, from RSM, Jason Lee-Emery and Ryan Houston, both from Finch Group, and Nigel Bourne, from Lamb Brooks helped raise £3,500 for the Ark

Golfers drive up funds

GOLFERS teed off in aid of two Basingstoke cancer charities.

The Ark and Pelican foundation benefitted from people swinging into action on two separate fundraising days.

First to hit the green were 18 teams from insurance brokers Finch Group who raised more than £3,500 for the Ark which will swell to over £7,000 thanks to match-funding from the Greenham Common trust.

They enjoyed a day at Test Valley Golf Club, complete with carvery and auction.

"The team at Finch Group are delighted with the success of the day," said Vince Gardener, managing director.

"We are grateful to all the players who supported this fundraising event, and to everyone who donated, or bid for the auction prizes."

For the Pelican Foundation, another 18 teams made up of supporters braved driving rain at Donnington Valley Golf Club.

Overall winners were The Malingerers, made up of Paul, Owen and Stuart Temple alongside Alec McQuin.

The Water Bearers finished second, third place went to By Hook or By Crook and the Seasiders came fourth.

Winners of the individual 'nearest the pin' contests were Elizabeth Hellyer, Peter Benson, Martyn Thompson, Helena Mercer and Richard Barker.

Around £6,000 was raised from Pelican's golf day.

Police launch new crackdown to combat drink and drug driving

By Matthew Brown

POLICE are cracking down on drink and drug driving.

Hampshire police are stepping up their response to the problem in which 140 people each year are killed or seriously injured on roads in the region.

"Too many people are still taking the risk to drive whilst impaired, it's simply not worth the devastation that is all too often left behind," said Superintendent Simon Dodds from the Hampshire roads policing unit.

"We are dedicated to reducing it, these people not only put themselves in danger, but others who are often innocently going about their daily lives.

"Extra patrols will be out over the next month carrying out a number of proactive breath and drug tests."

Driving whilst under the influence makes it 23 times more likely that a motorist will either kill themselves or someone else in a collision.

Around 11 per cent of deaths on the roads involved a drink driver and police are also urging people to think before they drive the following morning, as alcohol stays in the body for some time.

They also would like help from the community in tackling driving under the influence.

Supt Dodds addded: "I'd like to encourage members of the public to work with us for a safer community by reporting anyone they suspect is drink or drug driving by calling 101 with the details about the car they are driving, registration and the location so our officers can seek out those who commit these offences.

"If you are caught driving whilst impaired by drink of drugs, you could face a criminal conviction, possible prison term, driving ban, and could even lose your job."

Believe in Basingstoke Vote Labour on June 8th

Political Advertisement
Promoted by Andrew McCormick on behalf of Terry Bridgeman both at the Labour Party, Labour Club, Sandys Road, Basingstoke RG22 6AS

Believe in Basingstoke

An Integrated Health & Care Service

We want to see our National Health Service restored and integrated with social care. We need to see dignity in care services for older and vulnerable people and care workers treated fairly. We want mental health services given the support they deserve.

We want to stop the cuts to our NHS and invest in more nurses and doctors. We need to train more GPs and tackle the crisis in Primary Care. It's time to save our NHS!

Quality Education for All Our Children

We want the best start in life for every child. Early Years support in restored Sure Start Children's Centres.

We want investment in teacher recruitment and retention, with schools working together across Basingstoke to bring in the best Maths, English & Science staff. We want quality leadership supported by accountable governors. We do not want competition or a market in education, or our schools closed!

Inward Investment & Jobs for Basingstoke

Labour believes in Basingstoke. We want to see a National Investment Bank to support major infrastructure investments in roads, railways, housing and clean energy. We want a high skilled workforce and skilled apprenticeships. We want a £10 Living Wage. We want to see small businesses supported to grow. A Labour Government knows prosperity must be shared by all.

Decent homes for all, I will fight for truly affordable housing to buy and rent.

I will fight to save the Sports Centre.

I will campaign for clean air and to protect our environment.

Buskers wanted

BASINGSTOKE: Buskers are being invited to perform across town in support of Basingstoke Live on July 8 and 9.

Entertainers will not be performing in War Memorial Park where the main stage is, but it is hoped they will add colour to the town centre streets.

Acts must either provide their own battery-powered generator or perform acoustically as there are no powerpoints.

Visit basingstoke.gov.uk/busking for more information and to apply by June 12.

Beer and BBQ

CLIDDESDEN: A beer tent showcasing local real ales and a BBQ are among some of the attractions at Cliddesden Primary School's summer fete.

The Friends of the School have organised the fete on Saturday which includes a bungee run and a display arena.

Entry costs £1 for adults and the event starts at 3pm.

Company move

BASINGSTOKE: Healthcare marketing agency FCB Halesway has moved from Andover to the Midpoint building on Alencon Link.

The company has brought 47 staff with it to the new office which has enjoyed an extensive refurbishment.

Young writer's dream comes true as she pens winning tale

By Matthew Brown

A BUDDING Basingstoke author has penned her way to a young writers' award.

Sudichya Thapa Magar was involved in a battle of the pens and successfully turned over the page to scribble out tough competition from across the region with her futuristic story 'Reality or Dream?'

"When I first heard I had won, I couldn't stop smiling and I was really proud of myself," said the 14 year-old.

"Before I used to write stories but I never shared them. Winning this award has inspired me to write more and share my stories with my friends and family."

The Aldworth School pupil took part in the competition organised by Explore Learning, which has a centre in Basingstoke.

Children were asked to write a 500 word story set in 3017 as this year's theme was 'The Future'.

Sudichya's tale was inspired by global warming and follows a young girl called Irene who lives in a time where people can't go outside anymore because the air quality is so bad.

One day though, Irene leaves the house and discovers a different world to what she can see from inside.

More than 10,000 schoolchildren from across the country entered the contest and TV personality Steve Backshall, who judged the competition, was impressed by the standard.

He said: "The quality of the stories was beyond belief.

"I didn't know this was a competition for young writers, I'd believe I was reading the scribblings of Isaac Asimov or Philip K Dick, and while there were elements from the great work of science fiction, every story was original, and had its own sense of individuality."

Carey Ann Dodah, head of curriculum development at Explore Learning praised "the amazingly creative, thoughtful and inventive stories".

She revealed that trees were mentioned more than phones and Donald Trump was mentioned six times more than Theresa May.

The overall national winner will win a trip to Disneyland Paris and £500 of books for their school.

The national winner is due to be announced on June 19 and Sudichya is waiting to hear is she has made it through to the national final.

'Thank you for making the difference'

SELFLESS volunteers in Basingstoke have been celebrated.

As part of volunteers' week, the local branch of Samaritans joined other voluntary organisations across the UK to show the massive difference giving up time to help others can make.

"Samaritans' volunteers in Basingstoke make a difference everywhere from schools, workplaces, communities, festivals and events," said Matt Holman, deputy director of the local branch.

"We also have volunteers who fundraise for us and have a whole range of activities being planned for this year, including a Motown disco, bike rides, running and a charity football match, to name a few."

A barbecue was held to thank the volunteers for their time and dedication.

"Samaritans services wouldn't exist without our volunteers and this is our way of saying 'you make the difference'," Matt added.

Patient testimonial

I have recently had both my dentures replaced by Dentalia and I would like to thank everyone for making what might have been very traumatic for me, a truly trouble free experience.

I attended several routine fittings and on the last one I was advised to try to keep them in for several hours, to see how they fit but to let them know immediately if there were any discomfort, but in any case not to leave it too long before I returned to explain any soreness or fitting issues.

That was about 6 months ago and I have never returned or contacted Dentalia since.

I have never needed to, in fact the only reason I did once feel I should contact them was to apologise for not contacting them at all since my final fitting.

I am now writing to thank Dentalia and in particular David for all the excellent work they did for me and the fantastic customer service throughout, well done.

West Green House
the Opera Garden

Picnic Concerts in a Stunning Garden Setting

Music at West Green House - July 22nd to July 30th

The beautiful gardens at West Green House near Hartley Wintney attract visitors throughout the year. But did you know that for one week each year the gardens host a music festival which brings together classic opera, family concerts, celebrity speakers and, specially for 2017, a one-night-only celebration of the music of jazz legend George Gershwin.

All performances take place in specially built covered theatres. Bring your own picnics to enjoy in the garden or order a West Green Picnic from our Tea Room. Our Lakefield Bar is on hand to serve summer cocktails, chilled champagne and English fizz from our partner Coates and Seely and after dark, the gardens are spectacularly lit, bringing your evening to a beautiful conclusion.

COATES & SEELY

Tickets start at just £20 and are available for all performances.

Patients give good report of hospitals

NORTH Hampshire hospitals, including Basingstoke have been given the thumbs up by patients.

A recent survey carried out by the Care Quality Commission found that patients overall rated their experience as 8.2 out of 10.

Care from staff also scored highly, receiving nine out of 10 when asked if they felt well looked after by them and 9.3 for being treated with respect and dignity.

"I'm delighted that our patients feel so well looked after by the staff at our hospitals," said Alex Whitfield, chief executive of Hampshire Hospitals NHS foundation trust.

"Patient care is at the heart of everything we do. Staff across the trust work very hard to provide the highest levels of care and it is fantastic to know that their dedication and teamwork is making a real difference to our patients."

The results came from the CQC's national inpatient survey 2016 and asked adult patients who had at least one overnight stay during July 2016 to answer questions about their stay.

They also take into account the trust's other hospitals: the Royal County Hospital in Winchester and Andover War Memorial Hospital.

Ms Whitfield stressed though they were always looking to do better.

Green-fingered helpers get stuck into gardening

By Matthew Brown

AN "extremely heartening" green-fingered project has been launched to assist those who need help with their gardens.

Basingstoke Mencap has launched the Greenfingers service to help older and disabled people with their gardens alongside allowing people with learning disabilities to get some practical experience.

A £4,500 grant from Hampshire Housing provider VIVID is funding the project.

"The grant from VIVID has helped us lease a van and buy the relevant tools; without them we could not have launched the project," said Geoffrey Belsham, chair of Basingstoke Mencap.

"Being able to provide some basic garden maintenance for older people and others who are unable to do it themselves is extremely heartening.

"Added to that, being able to offer people with special needs a chance to work as a team, to build experience and confidence, and to contribute to their local community is extremely invaluable."

Lawn mowing, hedge trimming, pruning and tree work, along with one-off clearances and tidy-ups, is what the service is set to offer.

Geoffrey Belsham, Marcia Burnett, Customer Engagement Officer at VIVID, Scott Cripps, Davis Maybey, Stefan John, Harry Etherington-Smith, Jamie Ward, Alex Mott-Gotobed and Samantha Dixon

As it is aimed at people who don't have anyone to look after their garden, to ensure it is affordable, prices have been kept as low as possible.

All of the gardening work is carried out by volunteers with mental health issues or learning disabilities who are often excluded from the jobs market.

This project provides them with practical work experience.

VIVID's customer engagement officer, Marcia Burnett, was "delighted" to support the project.

She said: "The grant money donated by VIVID is for projects that will benefit the community as much as possible.

"We wholeheartedly support the service because not only is it giving work experience to some people that might not have previously had that opportunity, but it also provides a service to those unable to maintain their gardens."

To find out more about the service, call 01256 361964.

You Don't Have To Sell!! Talk To Me.

Local mortgage advisers Michael Usher Mortgage Services based in Winchester Street, Basingstoke have some good news for the over 55s in Basingstoke and surrounding villages. They are now expanding their very successful offering of a mortgage product for homeowners that are:

- Either trapped in an "Interest Only" mortgage
- Nearing the end of their mortgage term with their existing lender and have nowhere to go, as the normal High Street lenders are trying to move these borrowers on
- Customers that have no mortgage on their homes and wish to raise some monies for home improvements, grandchildren's education or even pay for a cruise!

Michael Usher, founder and owner of the firm comments "We have been advising on these products for over 15 years and have made a lot of people very happy with our advice". He goes on to say, "for some people this wide range of products can help homeowners live in their property until they pass on or downsize, this obviously gives total peace of mind for anyone that is feeling the pressure".
The types of lenders that are offering these products are Aviva, Legal & General, LV and Just Retirement to name a few. They are all keen to lend to homeowners who have vast amounts of equity in their homes, who are aged 55 plus and wish to borrow money against their bricks & mortar.

Michael Usher Mortgage Services have the experience to look after your personal needs. They have been successfully arranging mortgages since 1987 and opened their second office in Basingstoke in May 2015. The team is based in the town at the end of the one way system which is one of the best locations in Basingstoke and is headed by founder and owner Michael Usher along with his nephew Sean Usher and Joe Capon, who both have been with the firm for over 4 years. Michael goes on to say, "I am personally committed to giving our clients a 5 Star service from start to finish, I want all prospective customers whether they are First Time Buyers or experienced borrowers to receive 100% customer satisfaction from a local business and not a call centre". If you would like to discuss your mortgage needs with one of our team then please call 01256 637000. SQUIRRELS: QUALITY AND FREE ADVICE

SQUIRRELS OWNER ALAN STONE: "OUR shop is the only one within a five-mile radius of Basingstoke selling antique and collectables. We have a wide range of vintage and second-hand diamond and other jewellery.

"We've been here nearly 34 years, and are one of the longest established shops leftin the town centre.

"We also import and export antiques world-wide. "We offer free advice.

We also do probate work for local solicitors, mostly free, as well as a lot of valuation work for social services and charities.

"I personally specialise in antique silverware and jewellery.
"We have a very wide working knowledge and always happy to give advice. Why not pop in and see one of Basingstoke's most unique treasures.

WIN tickets to the revving & rocking Silverstone Classic

TO help celebrate summer, we are giving away a pair of weekend tickets to all three days of the annual Silverstone Classic (28-30 July), the biggest historic motor sport festival on Earth. Six lucky runners up will win a pair of tickets to the Sunday of the summer spectacular.

The three-day, fun-fuelled extravaganza regularly attracts more than 100,000 visitors serving up a magical mix of classic cars, classic rock music plus tons of great family entertainment – it's certainly not just for petrolheads!

The non-stop on-track action features the cream of historic racing action from huge Formula 1, Sports Cars, GT and Touring Car grids – more nostalgic racing than you will see anywhere else in the world in one weekend!

Adding some extra star dust, this year's sparkling race card also includes a special Celebrity Challenge Trophy Race. Famous faces already confirmed include several Olympic gold medal winners including Jason Kenny and Amy Williams, Brian Johnson from AC/DC, former England cricket captain Mike Gatting and boxing legend Carl Froch.

Closing date: Sunday, July 16

Live music is one of the Classic's popular attractions. The Bootleg Beatles are topping the line-up on Friday while Saturday's bill includes former Spandau Ballet front-man Tony Hadley.

But the entertainment doesn't stop there. A vintage funfair, air displays, hot air balloons, streetcar shoot-outs, 4x4 passenger experiences, Spitfire demonstrations, crazy golf, a huge shopping village, an adrenaline zone and a live eBay restoration are all included in the cost of admission.

Indeed, all tickets include free entrance to racing paddocks, track-side grandstands plus the live music concerts and many of the activities. Adult admission is from just £43 and full details can be found on the www.silverstoneclassic.com website.

Win tickets!

To be in with a chance of winning go to the website and answer the following simple question.

Q: Tony Hadley was the lead singer of which chart-topping band? Spandau Ballet, Duran Duran or Human League?

Blowing into Basingstoke

By Josh Cox

WITH Celtic influence and a diverse range of instruments you can guarantee a lively night from Le Vent du Nord.

The Québec-based quartet are lined up to perform at The Haymarket and never fail to delight crowds with their glorious mix of fiddle and foot-tapping, guitar, accordion, piano, bass, hurdy-gurdy and wonderful four part harmonies.

The band delivers catchy songs and tunes, inspired and influenced by Québec traditional folk styles, and their well-polished musical arrangements simply enhance this uplifting repertoire.

Quebec's most progressive folk band, Le Vent du Nord return with their eighth album entitled Têtu, meaning stubborn or obstinate. For the purpose of clarity the band write Têtu in everyday usage whilst the CD booklet showing Têtu is purely for the group's artwork.

With Têtu, Le Vent du Nord have remained true to their Québecois roots, whilst at the same time they have introduced new ideas to their music. The album is made up of 15 tracks with subject matter ranging from politics to love and satire.

Songs vary from stripped-down a cappella singing to sophisticated arrangements, including the introduction of a string quartet. Their music is definitely getting sharper, more refined, and ever more thoughtful with every album that passes.

Le Vent Du Nord, meaning Wind from the North, perform traditional Québécois music in French which is heavily influenced by Celtic music from both Ireland and Brittany. The group use a very diverse range of musical instruments augmented by Québécois foot percussion and wonderful vocals presented via a most entertaining, energetic and engaging stage show.

Their repertoire features catchy songs, tunes and original compositions. Adult tickets to the show on Thursday, June 15 cost £21; concession, under 16 and student tickets are £19, which includes a £2 booking fee. To book, call 01256 844244 or visit anvilarts.org.uk.

Hoedown with Rich

COMEDY: Rich Hall will be bringing his Hoedown to The Anvil on Thursday next week at 8pm.

Join Rich and his musical friends for a great mix-up of music, comedy and gratuitous coloration.

Tickets cost £19 and the show carries an age guide of 14 and over.

In this together

SHOW: Theatretrain Basingstoke will be performing the stage adaptation of the hugely successful Disney film, High School Musical on Sunday at The Haymarket.

Enjoy the many twists and turns of lovable schoolmates Troy and Gabriella.

The show starts at 5pm. Adult tickets are £14; concessions and under 16s are £12.

Don't stop them now

MUSIC: Red Aztek, a rock and roll covers band, will be taking centre stage at The White Hart Inn in Basingstoke on Saturday.

Their set will include songs from the sixties to current times. You can expect covers from artists such as Queen, Alice Cooper, Free, Rolling Stones, and AC/DC.

The free gig starts at 9pm.

Tea-time madness is grrrrr-eat fun!

By Josh Cox

WHO doesn't want to have tea with a tiger?

Join Sophie as she settles down to enjoy cake and a cuppa with a big, furry, stripy tiger who rings at her doorbell.

Family friendly show The Tiger Who Came To Tea is stopping off at The Haymarket from Friday, June 23 to Sunday, June 25; showing at various times, as part of the UK tour.

The magical tale starts as the doorbell rings just as Sophie and her mum are sitting down to tea. Who could it possibly be? What they certainly don't expect to see at the door is a tiger.

Packed with tonnes of magic, sing-a-long-songs and clumsy chaos, this tale of teatime mayhem will entertain the whole family from ages three upwards.

The charming musical play is based on the hugely popular book written and illustrated by Judith Kerr. It has been read by millions of children world-wide since it was published in 1968.

Dubbed 'a delight from start to finish' by Time Out magazine and 'This tiger is the cat's meow' by The Times, you can expect entertainment throughout and excellent value for money from the experienced and stage-hardened cast and crew.

The UK tour commenced following a smash-hit West End season. The Olivier Award winner David Wood OBE is one of the country's best writer and director of plays and musicals for children. His many successes include The Gingerbread Man, The Witches and Babe the Sheep Pig, and now he brings The Tiger Who Came To Tea.

Tickets for The Tiger Who Came to Tea are priced at £14.50 including booking fees.

The show runs for approximately 55 minutes with no interval.

For more information or to book, call the Anvil Arts box office on 01256 844244, or visit the website anvilarts.org.uk.

Stuck in the middle

MUSIC: Bitter Blues are set to play at The Wheatsheaf in Alton on Saturday at 9pm.

Local to Hampshire, the blues and rock five piece band play a range of covers from Hendrix to Jeff Healy. Returning to the pub you expect a evening of great entertainment.

There is no entry fee for this gig.

Strung to perfection

MUSIC: Beautifully talented on the harp, Rachel Newton is set to play at The Forge on Friday at 8.15pm.

Along with Rachel are her two companions, Lauren MacColl on fiddle and Mattie Foulds on percussion. The trio play a range of folk and Gaelic songs.

Full price tickets are £16.50, discounts for students and concessions.

Piano man

MUSIC: Currently celebrating his 50th year as a professional musician, keyboard player, songwriter and broadcaster, Rick Wakeman will be performing at The Anvil on Saturday at 7.30pm.

Rick recently made chart history when his Piano Portraits album became the first solo piano album to enter the UK's Top 10.

Tickets are £28.

Peace of mind for the future

Why a Lasting Power of Attorney gives you just that

When you write a Will, it's not for your benefit. You do it because you want to ensure that you've done your best to protect family and loved ones; to ease pressure - emotionally and financially - when you're no longer here.

Making your Lasting Power of Attorney (LPA) is something you can do for yourself - it's a precaution you can take to protect your finances, health and wellbeing.

As we age the odds of illness or accident resulting in limited physical or mental capacity increases and with it the ability to make our own decisions or choices - from the food we eat to the health care we receive - is diminished or lost. But you have a voice and that voice can be legally recognised.
By making your LPA you can elect those that you trust and want to make decisions on your behalf when you are no longer able to. You can choose one or several people and include restrictions and guidelines for your Attorney(s) to follow. Legally, they are required to follow certain principles, including amongst others:
(1) the assumption that you have capacity until it is established that you don't
(2) just because you've made an unwise decision does not mean you are assumed to be unable to make your own decisions and
(3) any decisions must be made in your best interests.

Without an LPA, your loved ones will face a lengthy, stressful and costly application to the Court of Protection for an appropriate person to be named as Deputy. What's most important to note is that it is the Court's decision who is named as Deputy and this may be someone you didn't quite trust to make decisions for you or in some cases, it may be an official who doesn't know you well enough.

Michael Usher Wills & Estate Planning can help you navigate this complex application process. Our friendly and efficient service helps you make the right decisions without feeling too frustrated or stressed by forms and legal requirements. We also offer a free Will review to ensure it is up to date and will still do the things you want it to do. Appointments are available Monday to Saturday at times that suit you, either at our offices or in your home if that is more comfortable for you. ENTERTAINMENT & LEISURE

Faithful adaptation allows du Maurier to shine

My Cousin Rachel (12A)

By Laurie Bailey

MISTRUST and mystery abound as Roger Michell (Notting Hill, Changing Lanes) adapts Daphne du Maurier's classic period novel, bringing one of her most enigmatic characters to the silver screen.

When Philip Ashley (Sam Claflin) learns that the widow of his greatly loved cousin and legal guardian, Ambrose, has arrived in Cornwall from overseas, he is torn between curiosity and a thirst for revenge.

Before his death, Ambrose had uncharacteristically fallen for and married another cousin of theirs, Rachel (Rachel Weisz), while staying in Italy for his declining health. His letters to Philip began full of affection for his new love, but slowly turned to fearful suspicion, believing the very worst of her. While cooler heads attribute this paranoia to delusions from a brain tumour, Philip is unconvinced.

He invites Rachel to stay with him at Ambrose's former country estate, determined to uncover the truth.

Du Maurier is a master of unfolding mystery, playing with unreliable narration to seduce and confound the reader. When it finally seems that Rachel's true nature has been revealed, a new piece of evidence emerges to somehow exonerate her, throwing doubt onto Philip's own character.

Michell grasps this fully, allowing the story to remain star of the film. Events proceed slowly and smoothly, with the camera often avoiding direct focus on its subject. Philip and Rachel are frequently observed in profile, from low angles, or obscured by furniture in cluttered rooms, creating the odd sense that space has been left for something invisible within the frame; almost as if the story's hidden secrets are physically present.

The realisation of 19th century Cornwall is wonderful, making full use of the setting's opulence and isolation. Darkness and light are in constant dialogue, feeding the mystery's shifting nature and showing off the cast's nuanced performances.

Claflin is excellent as the brash Philip, successfully balancing innocent enthusiasm with buried meanness, while Weisz brilliantly deflects any kind of expectations surrounding Rachel's character, maintaining the elusive complexity of du Maurier's creation.

On rare occasions, Rael Jones' dramatic score and Michell's direction interfere with the story's subtlety, overdoing suggestions of foul play or confusion - particularly during oddly high-energy flashback sequences - but really, there is very little to complain about.

My Cousin Rachel is a compelling, atmospheric drama that invites you to puzzle over its mysterious pieces.

Peugeot Traveller Business BlueHDi 115

Perfect for family and football fans

By Tony Yates

THIS week I seem to be testing a van – and although it looks like a van, sounds like a van and can carry up to nine passengers, it's actually not too bad at all, even though many will say it's still a 'van'

So, if you are looking for a business machine that can ferry around all of your staff and clients in a decent amount of comfort – then the Peugeot Traveller is the one for you. Let's not forget if you are in the market for a large machine for the family – then the Traveller also fits in as the perfect family load slugger with enough space for the whole tribe.

Power and efficiency

The Traveller I had on test was powered by an 115hp 1.6 litre diesel engine that performs as I expected considering its size. The Traveller is also fitted with what I think is one of Peugeot's best engines to date, and will happily return 54mpg (combined) top speed of course is of no concern here, because the Traveller was designed to be a business friendly vehicle and not a 'race car'. The important bits like torque figures are more relevant though because of the nature of what the vehicle will be carrying. That 1.6 HDi diesel engine produces around 300Nm which is great for all those times when you will have a full load and are in a bit of a hurry.

On the road

The ride is actually very comfortable and not bumpy or choppy at all like I expected it to be. To be honest – I thought the ride was going to be the Traveller's downfall – when actually all is well, with no sign of a harsh ride - even when fully loaded. Also, it actually felt very relaxing to drive and I enjoyed driving the family around in it all week. I also had to take all my football mates to a local match one evening – and while most of them owned a VW Transporter – they were all really impressed with what the Peugeot had to offer and commented on what their 'Transporter's' were lacking in - and what you happen to get for free inside the Peugeot Traveller.

Design & technology

As I said earlier, the Traveller has the ability to carry up to 9 people – and that is not something you see every day. Leaving that aside for a moment – it does come equipped with an abundance of additional kit to keep the business end happy such as; 7" touchscreen with DAB, air conditioning, LED DRL's, cruise control, automatic lights and wipers and rear parking sensors. This is just a small amount of what's on offer.

To sum up

The Peugeot Traveller is a decent large business/family machine that ticks all the boxes when it comes to getting around in a decent amount of comfort. If I was in the need for a business machine – then I would be checking out the Peugeot Traveller.

Price (from) £30,320 (as tested)

• The Peugeot Traveller may look like a van but it offers so much more

Wanderers return as Bison sign two former favourites

By Matthew Brown

BASINGSTOKE Bison have announced two new signings – both of them locally born.

Elliot Dewey and Ryan Sutton started their careers with Bison and played for them in the EPL and as the Basingstoke Buffalo.

They have now returned, much to the excitement of Bison head coach Doug Sheppard.

"Both are great young talents," he said.

"Elliot first played for the Bison when he was young and has progressed well and I am pleased to see him back in a Bison shirt.

"Ryan comes back from Canada and I am sure, like Stuart Mogg, this has improved his game."

Defenceman Dewey was a teenager when he first pulled on a Bison shirt in 2013 and left the following year to join South One outfit Invicta Dynamos.

Now aged 20, he spent three seasons with them, collecting 29 points from 113 games and experienced winning the play-offs earlier this year.

"I enjoyed last season winning the play-offs and I hope to win trophies with Bison now," he said.

The feeling was the same for Sutton.

"I enjoyed my year away in the Canada and I feel I have matured as a player," the 22-year-old forward said.

"I won the league when I last played for Bison and I would love to do that again."

Sutton made 48 appearances for Bison in his first spell and spent time last year at Canadian sides Komoka Dragons and Tottenham Steam, scoring 27 points from 32 games.

Five alive for race ace Rob

ROB COLLARD will be hoping to continue his strong start to the British Touring Car Championship in round five at Croft this weekend.

The north Hampshire driver, who races for West Surrey Racing, is the only man to have scored points at every race in 2017 and is second in the standings behind reigning champion Gordon Shedden.

He has one win and four podiums, but has made sure he has racked up the points in the races where the top spots are out of reach.

Croft, in Yorkshire, has been a happy hunting ground for Collard in recent years. He's won at least one race in the last two seasons.

Divecha and Kerr shine as local teams both win

IT was a good weekend for Hartley Wintney and Hook & Newnham Basics cricket clubs as they both chalked up victories.

Hook built on their previous victory against Tichbourne Park and travelled to the Isle of Wight to play Ventnor, running out winners by 45 runs.

They won the toss, elected to bat and scored a competitive 258-6 from 50 overs.

Contributions from Jordan Hobday (69), Matt Buckingham (61 not out), Ben Thane (34) and Matt Love (31) all helped give Hook runs to play with.

In reply, Ventnor struggled to get going with only number four batsman Jamie Miller (110 not out), posting a score of any real note.

Tight bowling from Hobday and Shane Brewer really squeezed the home side before Anik Divecha ripped into the middle order, finishing with figures of 6-24.

Ventnor were all out for 213, making the journey back to Basingstoke a little sweeter.

Hartley Wintney defeated Hambledon by four wickets.

Hambledon won the toss and chose to bat, finishing on 225-7 from their 50 overs.

Henry Glandfield top-scored with 71. Scott Baldwin was the pick of the bowlers with 4-25 from his 10 overs.

William Kerr (68) got Hartley Wintney's chase off to a solid start with further useful contributions from Danny Flanders (32) and Baldwin capping off a fine all-round display with 47, getting Hartley over the line.

Sport Bites

Promotion blow

ICE HOCKEY: Basingstoke Bison Ladies missed out on winning the Division One play-offs after losing in the final at Sheffield.

The Herd women were beaten 6-2 against the Bracknell Firebees in the final, having overcome Telford 3-2.

They had fallen behind 3-1 after the first period, but Gerry Park made some great saves to keep Bracknell at bay.

In the third period, Jodie Attrill made it 3-2 but three goals in 65 seconds sealed the title for the Firebees.

Palace warm-up

FOOTBALL: Basingstoke Town have announced their first pre-season fixtures, which include a game against Crystal Palace Under-23s.

At the Camrose, the Dragons will face Eastleigh on July 11, Crystal Palace on July 15 and finally, on July 18, Woking.

Away from home they are set to play Alton on July 4, Bracknell on July 22, Leatherhead on August 1 and Salisbury on August 5.

Rebeccas in form

ATHLETICS: Rebecca Bullocks of Basingstoke and Mid Hants club has set a new U17 club 800m record.

Her run of 2.08.32 at a fixture in Milton Keynes broke her own record and also took her to third in the power of 10 rankings.

Rebecca Poole produced a season best in the U17 1500m steeplechase with 5.15.29.

The following day, Bullocks was in action at Guildford in the 1500m, finishing in a 1-2 alongside Izzy Mannion who recorded a PB of 4.47.4.

Relay celebration

ATHLETICS: The gruelling 100-mile South Downs relay was fruitful for Basingstoke and Mid Hants club.

They were the first veteran team to cross the line and comprised of Graham Hall, Karl Westhead, Alex Hamilton, Matt Shaylor, captain Chris Burghes and Steve Jeffrey.

Scuppered!

Bountymen knocked off top of table

By Matthew Brown

BASINGSTOKE and North Hants CC lost by just seven runs in a tight encounter away at Rowledge.

It meant the Bountymen were knocked off top spot of the Southern League Division One.

Opening Rowledge batsmen Nick Morant (54) and Tom Gleave (18) made a good start after winning the toss, putting on a first-wicket partnership of 71.

But a quick flurry of wickets pegged them back.

Gleave was the first to go, run out by captain Mitch Stokes, before Tom Treble was dismissed for a golden duck, bowled by Matt Thankachan.

Thankachan was at it again a few balls later when he had Joe Randall trapped LBW for a duck.

Basingstoke had Rowledge in a little bother at 80-4 after Morant was caught by Stokes, again off the bowling of Thankachan who was pick of the bowlers with 3-28.

Rowledge rebuilt thanks to a partnership between Ian Metcalfe (18) and Sam Plater (51 not out). This got them to 195-7 from their 50 overs with Ryan Connor chipping in with a couple of wickets at the end.

In reply, Basingstoke openers Dan Belcher (27) and Joe Oates (13) got off to a pretty good start.

Stokes, after a good performance in the field with a run out and catch, played a captain's innings, top scoring with 60. This set Basingstoke up well with George Metzger (16) and Dean Nurse (24) continuing the good work, getting them to 157-4.

But there was a spectacular collapse as they were all out for 188, Chris Jolley the only tail-end batsman to make double figures with 14. This left them seven runs short.

Next week they face new league leaders Bournemouth at May's Bounty.
